

HAZARDS

1. Name three ticks found in our area - Common name and Latin name

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Name a risk associated with each species

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

2. Name 2 poisonous snakes found in our area - Common name and Latin name

1. _____
2. _____

Choose one and sketch the classic pose and field marks

Describe the habitat it prefers and whether it's diurnal or nocturnal.

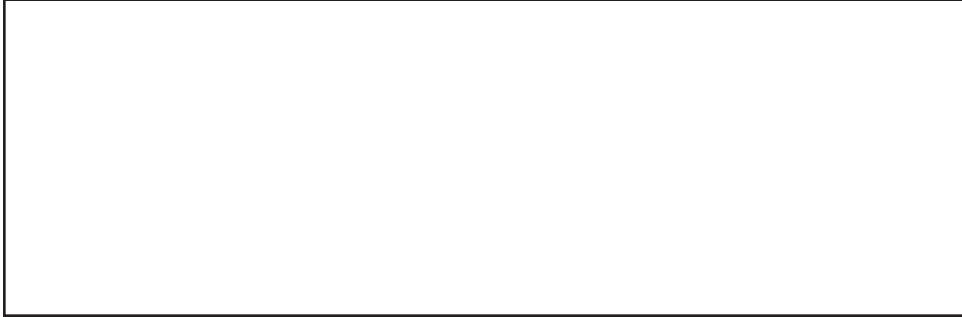

What does it eat?

What eats it?

Describe the first aid treatment for a snake bite.

3. Name a local poisonous mushroom - Common name and Latin name

Draw a typical one, noting field marks.

Where do they like to grow, and when?

How is this mushroom poisonous to humans?

What edible or medicinal look-alikes are there?

4. Heat - Exhaustion and Hypothermia

What are the symptoms of heat exhaustion?

What are the symptoms of hypothermia?

5. Name a northeastern wasp species - Common name and Latin name

Draw a typical one noting field marks

Where do they locate their nests or hives?

What do they eat?

How do they pose a hazard to humans?

What are symptoms of a sting? Note the range of severity.

What treatment is appropriate?

Which plant growing locally is known for its effectiveness in aiding insect bites or stings?